Lesson 1
Classifying Real Numbers

set - a collection of objects finite set - the number of objects can be counted.

(finite number)

infinite set - the number of objects cannot be counted (infinite number) rational numbers-

numbers that can be written as fractions irrational numbers-

numbers that cannot be written as fractions integers-

the set of whole numbers and their opposites whole numbers-

the set of natural numbers and zero natural numbers-

the numbers used to count objects or things