

Lesson 2
Understanding Variables and Expressions

Variable -

a symbol, usually a letter, used to represent an unknown number

Constant - a quantity whose value does not change (A number without a variable)

Example: $x + 5$

x is the variable, 5 is the constant

The expression has 2 terms

Coefficient- the numeric factor of a product

$$4xyz$$